The Urban Planning programs at Eastern Washington University has a long tradition of support for neighborhood and community revitalization throughout the region. Planning faculty, students, and classes have supported the development of neighborhood plans, housing programs, and planning projects. Through the Partnership EWU Planning faculty will guide the development of the neighborhood plan working in conjunction with the City of Spokane neighborhood planning, economic development, and neighborhood services offices. We hope that work on the neighborhood plan will support on-going neighborhood planning efforts throughout the city and serve as a national model for neighborhood planning which integrates business concerns and issues into the planning process. Planning for Centers and Corridors will be included in this neighborhood planning effort.

Social Work

The School of Social Work and Human Services will assist in the identification of un-met need and the integration of human service concerns within the neighborhood plan. Quarterly social service meetings between service providers assess needs for neighborhood services. Our partnership can help direct business owners or employees to the services that may be available.
