Call for Applications: Faculty Fellow For Internationalizing the University

About the EWU Faculty Fellows Program
The Faculty Fellows Program is an opportunity for faculty to take a leadership role in spearheading initiatives identified by the Academic Strategic Plan. Their efforts enrich both the university and their professional lives. To this end, Faculty Fellows:

• Report to the Provost
• Attend regular meetings of the EWU Faculty Fellows
• Attend at least one relevant state-wide or national conference
• Organize at least one event to enrich understanding of their area of focus for EWU faculty, staff, students and/or community members. This could be a panel discussion, a research presentation or invited speaker.
• Contribute to assessing and refining the Fellows program.

Faculty Fellow for Internationalizing the University
The Fellow will engage faculty, staff and students in exploring ways to internationalize Eastern’s educational experience. In particular, the Fellow will focus on integrating global perspectives into the curriculum, supporting existing learning and serving abroad programs, and expanding opportunities for Eastern faculty to teach and pursue scholarship opportunities internationally. The Fellow will work closely with Eastern’s Division of International and Educational Outreach and with the other Fellows—in particular the Fellows for Diversity and Research & Scholarship—to enrich Eastern’s academic programs.

The Faculty Fellow should be a current, full-time EWU faculty member with experience in international teaching and learning.

This is a two-year, 25% release-time appointment with a half-time summer appointment. It runs Jan. 2007 through Dec. 2008.

How to Apply for the Fellows Program
Finalists for each Fellowship will be selected and interviewed by the Provost and Faculty Organization President.

To apply for the Faculty Fellow for Internationalizing the University:
Send an e-mail with the following information:
• Your name and current position
• Phone and e-mail
• Academic unit
• A paragraph about your qualifications and experience in regard to international education
