Directions to Turnbull Laboratory for Ecological Studies (TLES)

Turnbull National Wildlife Refuge is approximately a 40-minute drive from Spokane, Washington. From Spokane, take I-90 west to the Cheney / Four Lakes Exit (exit 270). This will put you on Highway 904, which continues approximately 5 miles into the city of Cheney, home of the Eastern Washington University.

When you get to Cheney continue west through 3 traffic lights. After you pass the third light proceed for one half mile to Cheney-Plaza Road. There, on your left you will see a brown and white sign that reads "Turnbull National Wildlife Refuge 4.5 miles." Make the left turn on to Cheney-Plaza Road and drive south for 2.5 miles where you will come to a gated entrance with a sign "Turnbull Laboratory for Ecological Studies, Eastern Washington University." Turn left into the entrance and proceed to the parking area.
