Personal Statement
Mental Health Counseling and School Counseling

For applicants to either the Mental Health Counseling or School Counseling programs, address the following issues. Identify the program you are applying to and explain why you are interested in said program. Provide a statement of personal interests, desires and future goals and how your chosen area will address them. Finally, provide an account of how you are meeting the prerequisite courses for admission (see program application).