ITECH

ITECH makes technology easier to find. The website provides links to the various computer labs and technology services students may access.

http://itech.ewu.edu

GETTING STARTED

Each student has an ITECH account (username and password) that may be activated at: http://accounts.ewu.edu.

With an activated account students may login to the computer labs, the wireless network and sign up for services like email and free antivirus downloads.

To explore other technologies, visit http://itech.ewu.edu
