Chicano/Latino Studies

TENURE TRACK FACULTY POSITION

Eastern Washington University’s Chicano/Latino Studies Program invites applications for a full time tenure-track assistant professor specializing in Chicano/Latino Studies. The successful candidate will have research and teaching interest in Chicano/Latino Studies, Political Science, Sociology, Cultural Studies, Women Studies and/or other relevant academic disciplines.

Areas of teaching expertise will include Chicano History, Chicano Culture, Chicano/Latino politics and Chicano Literature. Additionally, the successful applicant will be involved in conducting and publishing research relevant to Chicano/Latino Studies. Service on university wide committees and collaborating with other university departments as well as with the external community is also expected.

EWU-Chicano/Latino Studies particularly encourages applicants whose research and teaching interest address equity issues and the presence, status and issues of the Chicano/Latino community. Additionally, we seek applicants who are student centered and will serve as a faculty mentor to undergraduate Chicano/Latino students.

Minimum requirements include an earned doctorate or completion of doctorate by 9/01/2008 in an appropriate Social Science field. In addition, an active research agenda, demonstrated teaching excellence, experience in curriculum development, and work experience with Chicano/Latino and diverse students. Spanish language fluency is desired.

Review of applications will begin January 25, 2008 and continue until the position is filled. Additional information about the program can be obtained on our web site http://www.ewu.edu/x2393.xml

Please send a letter of application addressing position qualifications, experience and professional goals; current curriculum vitae and three letters of reference to: Michael Frumkin, Dean, Eastern Washington University; 121 Senior Hall, Cheney, WA 99004. The successful candidate will be required to show proof of eligibility to work in the U.S. pursuant to U.S. immigration laws and pass a background check. If you have questions about this position, please contact Dr. Carlos Maldonado by phone (509) 359-6146 or email: cmaldonado@mail.ewu.edu.

Eastern Washington University is committed to increasing the diversity of its faculty, staff, students and academic program offerings and to strengthening sensitivity to diversity throughout the institution. We are an equal opportunity/affirmative action employer and applications from members of historically underrepresented groups are especially encouraged.
