Research Paper – Conflict Resolution
(Borrowed from are judicial affairs colleagues Eastern Illinois University)

Instructions for paper:

Write a paper on successful conflict resolution, applying your research specifically to conflict between roommates or residential hall floor community conflicts. (Refer to your sanction letter for length of paper.)

Your paper should address the following situations:

1.) Ways to resolve a conflict dealing with guests in the room or on the floor.

2.) Ways to resolve conflicts concerning the use of each other property.

3.) Ways to resolve conflicts arising from lifestyle issues, such as music preference, bedtime issues, etc….

4.) Most importantly, address the ways to resolve any conflicts which appear to be on the verge of becoming violent.

In your summary include a discussion of any insight you may have gained from your research and how you could have resolved the issue you had on __________(date) more effectively.

Paper criteria: Your paper is to be the product solely of your own effort.

- Use either APA or MLA to cite your sources correctly.
- Your paper must have a cover page stating your name, student identification number, and the date it is being submitted to the Office of Student Rights and Responsibilities.
- Your paper must be a computer-typed. It must be double-spaced with a font no larger or smaller than 12 pt. and the font style must be Times. Your borders must be no larger or smaller than 1” on the top, bottom, left, and right sides.
- Your paper must be free of grammatical and typing errors.

Please take the time to properly prepare your paper for submission. If your paper does not meet the academic standards of how to write a paper properly, you will be asked to revise and/or redo the paper.

Failure to submit the paper as described above could result in further disciplinary actions taken against you.
Eastern Washington University is committed to equal opportunity and affirmative action in employment.