Harassment Feedback & Reflection Paper

1. Thoroughly describe the situation you created for the complainant student. Make sure to not include any names or identifying school information. After you have explained the harassing situation in detail, pose a question to those who read your scenario. You can ask them how they feel about the situation or whether they consider the situation to be harassment.

2. You have until _______________________________ to submit the situation and question computer-typed to your Judicial Officer in the Office of Student Rights & Responsibilities. Then, your Judicial Officer will post this question on an appropriate forum on the internet.

3. Your Judicial Officer will provide you with a printed copy of the responses on _______________________________.

4. Based on the responses from the forum, you will use this information to aid you in writing a reflection paper.

Your reflection paper must meet the following guidelines:

- Your paper must have a cover page stating your name, student identification number, and the date it is being submitted to the Office of Student Rights and Responsibilities.
- Your paper must be a minimum of ____ computer-typed pages (not including the cover page). It must be double-spaced with a font no larger or smaller than 12 pt. and the font style must be Times. Your borders must be no larger or smaller than 1” on the top, bottom, left, and right sides.
- Your paper must be free of grammatical and typing errors.
- Your paper must show that you have reflected on the choices you made that resulted in a referral to the Office of Student Rights and Responsibilities. It should also discuss the interactions you have had in completing your sanctions and discuss any learning that occurred through that process.

Overall, this is a chance to demonstrate that you have learned and how you have grown from this disciplinary experience. This paper is an opportunity for you to take responsibility and learn from your actions. It is a venue for you to express, respectfully, your agreement or disagreement with what your experience has been with your particular situation.

Unsatisfactory papers will not be accepted and students will be required to rewrite their papers.
